RSE: Relationships & Sex Education

Dear Parents/ carers,

I appreciate that there has been a lot of talk in the media regarding the content of the RSE curriculum in schools. As a catholic primary school our primary aim is to provide our children with opportunities to:

- Value themselves as unique individuals
- Respect themselves and others
- Learn about friendships and healthy relationships
- Learn about keeping themselves safe and know what to do or who to go to if they feel unsafe

To reduce any worries or concerns I am holding a workshop on Thursday 9th of November at 1.30 in the school assembly hall to discuss our proposed RSE curriculum and address any questions or concerns you might have.

In the meantime, we would like to consult with you on our draft RSE policy. Please take the time to read our draft policy.

Yours sincerely

Bronagh McVeigh

Dear Parent/Carer

NSPCC's Speak out. Stay safe. programme

I am pleased to inform you that we are participating in the NSPCC's Speak out. Stay safe. Programme this term. Speak out. Stay safe. is a programme for children aged 5-11 which aims to help children understand abuse in all its forms and to recognise the signs of abuse. Children are taught to speak out if they are worried, either to a safe adult or Childline.

This child friendly programme is aligned with the curriculum and consists of age appropriate virtual assemblies and supporting classroom based activities which we have reviewed, alongside NSPCC volunteer led face to face workshops for children 7 and 9-11. The content is delivered in an engaging and interactive way with the help of the NSPCC mascot Buddy. If you would like to know more about the Speak out. Stay safe. programme visit www.nspcc.org.uk/speakout.

The virtual assemblies will take place on Thursday 9th of November followed by a workshop for P6 and P7 children on Friday 24th of November.

Feedback survey for pupils aged 7-11

The NSPCC would like to gather feedback from pupils aged between 7-11 about the Speak out. Stay safe. programme to gauge their learning. This will be voluntary and children can still take part in the programme if they don't take part in the survey.

All survey questions are multiple choice and focussed on the programme.

The survey is anonymous and confidential. However, if in the process of completing the survey, a teacher becomes concerned for a pupil's welfare (e.g., through something a pupil says) we will follow our school's safeguarding procedures.

If you do not want your child to take part in the survey, sign the slip below and return it to your child's class teacher.

If you have agreed that your child can take part in the survey but your child changes their mind on the day, that is also okay.

Additional NSPCC resources for families to help keep children safe

The NSPCC have shared some important information below on wider NSPCC resources and support to help keep children safe.

Children can change the language, enlarge text and also listen to the content. www.childline.org.uk/buddy (5-7) www.childline.org.uk/kids (7-11)
Talk PANTS with your children Talk PANTS is a simple conversation to help keep children safe from sexual abuse. From P through to S, each letter of PANTS provides simple but important messages. Download the free

I hope you find this information about the NSPCC and the Speak out. Stay safe. programme helpful. Please do contact me if you have any further questions.

Bronagh McVeigh

Support Your Child's Emotional Development

Encourage and help your child to...

Sleep well - children who regularly get a good nights sleep have better attention, behaviour, memory and better mental and physical health.

Get outdoors - particularly into nature. Being outdoors reduces stress and tension and makes us happy.

Be active - as they need lots of exercise. Regular exercise will boost their mental and emotional health.

Be creative - creative play allows your child to try out new ideas and to problem solve.

Be helpful - do things for others. They could give away outgrown toys and clothes or make buns for friends and family.

Play regularly - play is absolutely essential for a child's happiness and their mental health. It also teaches them to be creative, problem solve and learn self-control.

Support Your Child's Emotional Development

- Ask your child how they are feeling and try to notice their feelings throughout the day.
- Talk to your child about emotions. When reading books to children talk about the characters' emotions.
- Talk about how you are feeling during the day. You could make this into a game by encouraging your child to watch you use a range of facial expressions to convey emotions such as happy/angry/sad.
- Help children understand that all people have feelings. For example, when reading a book, ask questions like, "Why do you think she felt that way? How could you tell she was feeling sad?"

Recognise that children do not always have the words to express their emotions.

When your child experiences a strong emotion, it's important to support their efforts to calm down so they will be better able to talk about how they are feeling. After children learn how to calm down and talk about how they are feeling, they can then begin to problem solve.

Make your own simple flashcards - start with happy and sad. These cards can be used to open up conversations with your child.

Play a Game - get a ball, throw it and say "When I'm sad, I..." and take it in turns to answer. Answers could include - throw things, shout and cry. Vary questions. Then help them think of better solutions.
